LAST OF SEPTEMBER.

Goebel and Blackburn Will Be Here.

Date, Fixed For the Proposed Democratic Barbecue and Speaking.

The proposed big barbecue and Democratic rally at or near this city, will be the last week in September. Senator Goebel and Senator Blackburn will both be here and they have agreed to give any date preferred between the 26th and 30th of September. The exact date will be announced later on, but it will most likely be either Friday the 29th or Saturday the 30th.

Mr. Blackburn also promises that Col. Bryan shall make a speech in Hopkinsville, if he as chairman of the campaign committee can control the making of his appointments.

Other speakers of National reputation will also be sent to Christian county and a strong effort will be made to carry the county for the whole ticket.

BROTHER KERFOOT.

Called Down Hard by Hon. John W. Botts, of Shelby County.

Shelbyville, Ky., Aug. 15.—Hon. John W. Botts, a prominent Democrat of this county, created a sensation in a speech at the court house, following Congressman Settle's splendid effort for the ticket. Mr. Botts bitterly denounced Rev. F. H. Kerfoot, of the Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville, for making a political speech here last week at the state missionary convention of the Christian church of Kentucky. Squire Botts is a member of the Christian church and was present when Kerfoot made the break.

Kerfoot, who is the head of the temperance movement in this state, was invited to address the convention on that subject, but instead made a bitter attack on Senator Goebel. Squire Botts said Kerfoot's part was not on the printed program, and it was a discourse in the interest of the Republican party. He referred to Rev. George Darsie, of Frankfort, as a life long Republican, who had been appointed by the Republicans as a steering committee to get Brother Kerfoot in the meeting in the alleged interest of temperance, but in reality to attack the Democratic ticket. He denounced Kerfoot's intemperate language as becoming only to a ward politician and an untair and unworthy attack on men who were the peers of any in Kentucky. He referred to the cranks who beset every legislature with special legislation, and said Goebel had done more for morality than any other man in Kentucky when he succeeded in having gambling and running of lotteries made felonies.

ALL FRANCE IN A FUROR.

The Shooting of N. Labori May Result in Dreyfus' Early Acquittal.

New York, Aug. 16.—Joseph Reinach, cables the following statement to the Journal:

"The shooting of Labori will warm up the atmosphere of the court, as it has disgusted honest men."

"The attempted assassination is not the outcome of a weak mind; it is part of a general plan, is cold-blooded, premeditated and paid for. The crime syndicate of assassins feared Labori, and wanted his life and his documents. The same men are responsible for the razor which cut Henry's throat, for the rope which hung Lozier, and the pistol that shot Labori. History furnishes no example of crime so atrocious."

"The plot includes the murder of Dreyfus."

ers who ordered the assassination will yet be caught. No compromise verdict is possible now. The judges, who hitherto would have been willing to throw a sop to the anti-Dreyfusards, will now make no concession.

"They stole Labori's papers to feed the dossier. My letter, which was among the stolen documents, will not give the dossier much nourishment. It will doubtless be claimed by the murder party that the 'Anglo-German syndicate' hired the man to shoot Labori in order to awaken sympathy for Dreyfus."

"The army accusers are now in full retreat and hoping for revolution. There have been several combinations made to murder Dreyfus. The murder has many accomplices. The plot has a platform of two planks; first, subversion of the republic; second, the murder of those who denounce the gang of forgers."

"Labori's blood stirs honest souls. Look forward to a speedy acquittal of Dreyfus."

DEMOCRATS AROUSED.

Campaign Committee Organized
And Will Go In to Win.

The Democrats of Christian county have on their fighting clothes. The committee has been re-organized and only two weak links were found in the chain of 28 members and their places were promptly filled.

A Campaign Committee of thirty members was organized Tuesday with Buckner Leavell Chairman and Frank N. Bassett Secretary. The best men in the party asked to be given places on this committee. All are anxious to work and there is going to be a fight this year the like of which has not been seen in Christian county since 1890, when the Democrats swept the county. Christian county has often been carried by Democrats and it can be carried again with a close organization and proper efforts. Indications are that the gold Democrats will as a rule vote the ticket this year and there is more disaffection in the Republican party than there is in the Democratic party.

In the last county election, with the election boards packed against the Democrats, the Republicans came within 300 votes of losing a part of their ticket. With fair officers and an honest election, this slender majority can be overcome and will be. This is going to be a "landslide year." Kentucky is going Democratic by a majority so large that Goebel's vote will exceed the vote of all the other four candidates combined. Not more than 20,000 voters will attend the side-shows while the big circus is going on, and Goebel's majority will be at least 30,000.

Christian county is anxious to help swell that majority and wants to furnish two votes for Joe Blackburn in the next Legislature. And when the Democracy of old Christian goes in to win, it wins.

HINTS OF SCANDAL

Dr. Long "Resigned, 'Case He Was Obligated To."

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 15.—There is something behind the resignation of Dr. John L. Long as Superintendent of the State Feeble-Minded Institution, which was announced in the late edition of The Times yesterday, that will probably not be officially made public. It is said here this morning that the Superintendent had been on probation before the Governor for some time and that his resignation came yesterday only to prevent an investigation by the Asylum Board. There has been considerable friction, it is said, between Dr. Long and the board and between him and Stewart Pickens and other employees of the institution.

The new Superintendent, Dr. Ely, who takes charge at once, is the third who has held the place under the present administration. The first Superintendent, Dr. J. P. Huff, of Flemingsburg, resigned rather hastily in January, 1898, after con-

BROWNIE TICKET.

Here's Your Taylor Aid Society's Work.

Resolutions Denounce the Goebel Bill, Indorse Bryan and Ignore Blackburn.

For Governor—John Young Brown, of Jefferson county.

For Lieutenant Governor—Maj. P. Johnston, of Fayette county.

For Attorney General—Lawrence P. Tanner, of Daviess county.

For Auditor—Frank A. Pasteur, of Caldwell county.

For Treasurer—John C. Droege, of Kenton county.

For Secretary of State—Capt. E. L. Hines, of Warren county.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction—Rev. E. O. Guerrant, of Jackson county.

For Commissioner of Agriculture—G. H. Vanderveer, of Lincoln county.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 17.—The Brownie convention nominated a full ticket, headed by John Young Brown for Governor. The platform denounces the Louisville Convention, demands the enactment of laws for punishing fraud in securing a nomination, indorses the Chicago platform and William J. Bryan; denounces the Goebel election law, favors the regulation of railroads without indorsing the McChord bill against extortion, favors free competition in the sale of school books, condemns the Republican National and State administrations, and closes with an appeal for "Support in a patriotic effort to redeem Kentucky from Republican domination and from the threatened evils of corrupt machine politics." Blackburn was not indorsed. The Credentials Committee reported that 110 counties were represented, but there was no roll call during the convention, all the nominees being chosen by acclamation. A resolution was adopted demanding the use of the rooster. The convention completed its work at 11:15 o'clock last night. About 2,000 persons attended the afternoon session. About 1,500 were present when the night session began, but the crowd became small before the close.

Lillian Lewis, the actress, is dead of consumption at Farmington, Miss.

Wheeler, Garnett and Howell have all been expected to speak at Eddyville next Monday.

One of the eight Brownies at Fulton surrendered during Goebel's speech and put on a Goebel button.

Iowa Democrats nominated Fred E. White for Governor and the Populists endorsed the Democratic ticket.

The Brownies will have to get on the official ballots by petition, provided they can find enough signers to conform to the law.

News comes from Frankfort that Gov. Bradley has had to make a change in the Feeble Minded Institute, the second in two years, to escape another scandal on the eve of the election. Having no proper material in his own party, he has appointed a Democrat to administer the affairs of the remaining four months of his term, until Gov. Goebel takes charge.

Gov. Bradley has refused to pardon an ex-convict in order to restore him to citizenship. As McKinley's alleged plurality in the State was made up of ex-convicts, it appears that Taylor is not to have the same chance of carrying the State. In refusing a pardon the Governor says:

"One convicted of such a crime, and who has not had time sufficient since his release from prison to show reformation, should not be clothed with the right of suffrage. The fact that he is a 'good Republican' affects nothing. In view of his crime he certainly must be a bad Republican."

Senator Goebel and Mr. Blackburn closed their list of appointments in the First district this week at Fulton, addressing about 1,000 people Tuesday. They found but little disaffection anywhere in the district, in spite of reports to the contrary in the subsidized newspapers. They stopped at Madisonville Wednesday, on their way to Louisville, and spoke to a crowd of 1,500 people. The tabernacle was used for the speaking and many ladies graced the occasion. Twelve beautiful girls carrying flags and bouquets acted as a body-guard for the speakers, in view of the recent statement of Al Berry that Kentucky is unsafe for Democratic orators. Hopkins county is said to be a storm center of the bolting movement in Kentucky. If this be true the bolters were not at the speaking, nor did they in any way make themselves conspicuous in the city. The audience that heard the speakers was an attentive and appreciative one. Applause was generous and at times tumultuous. The party leaders are already at work and are confident of victory in Hopkins. Here as elsewhere, there is a feeling of entire confidence and a determination to win, that will not consider even the possibility of defeat.

The most striking feature of the Century for September, which will be a Salt-Water Number, is the first instalment of Captain Joshua Slocum's "Sailing Alone Around the World." This is the narrative of a daring voyage of circumnavigation, undertaken by the author in 1895, in a forty-foot sloop built by himself in Buzzard's Bay, and taken back and forth across the Atlantic and thence around Cape Horn and the Cape of Good Hope, without assistance or companionship. The distance traversed was 46,000 miles, and the accuracy of the navigator's landfall throughout was a thing to marvel at, his chronometer for most of the time being a little tin clock of the cheapest kind. Captain Slocum was a thoroughly seasoned sailor when he started on his adventurous single-handed cruise, but his unique achievement was not without difficulties and perils that taxed to the utmost his strength, endurance and ingenuity.

The Democrats of Christian county are the best Democrats on earth. Although free railroad tickets were furnished to all who would go and free meal tickets were provided at Lexington, he it said to the credit of the Democracy of old Christian, that there could not be found in the entire county sixteen men who would go to Lexington to cast the 16 votes of the county against the Democratic party. We do not raise in Christian county Democrats who can be shipped in carload lots, fed by contract and voted by "acclamation." We are proud of Christian county.

The Dispatch filled up its front page Wednesday with a cock and bull story of how Gus Coulter bought the twenty-two delegates of Campbell county for $150. The Campbell county delegation was headed by Judge John T. Hodge and other such men, who did not have to be bought to vote for Coulter. The story was voted by a couple of beats who tried to pull Coulter's leg a week after the convention adjourned.

And so Bill Sweeney is to be the head of the Brownie organization. On another page we are able to give a strikingly lifelike illustration of this valiant indigator and hero of Beck's Hall. Although it is not our funeral, we wish to go further and move that Bill's picture, with a tin horn in one hand and a railroad pass in the other, be made the voting device of the ticket for which he is to act as wet nurse.

BRADLEY ENTHUSIASTIC FOR TAYLOR.

- 1.—Calls Long down for neglecting his official duties to run Taylor's campaign.
- 2.—Calls Al Berry down for claiming that Bryan would be unsafe in Kentucky.
- 3.—Refuses to restore suffrage to Republican ex-convicts to help swell Taylor's vote.

- 5.—Sends his throat to the doctor just as the speaking campaign opens.

Oh! yes, Bradley is enthusiastic for Taylor.

On the second and third pages of today's paper we give in full the address of Senator Goebel in opening his campaign at Mayfield last Saturday. We commend this speech to the thoughtful perusal of all our readers. It is well worth a careful reading and re-reading.

That Boston Anti-Lynching Woman Captures a Georgia "Exhibit" Who Escaped a Mob.

Boston, Aug. 16.—The Post today says:

Miss Lillian Clay Jewett states that she expects soon to go South to carry on her campaign against lynching, which, she says, has not by any means ended with her bringing the Baker family North. She will probably proceed first to Georgia and deliver addresses.

Yesterday Miss Jewett had a long talk with a young negro named Robert McGraw, who scarcely two weeks ago escaped from a mob which sought to lynch him in Cedar-town, Ga. Miss Jewett talked strongly of going to that place, which is in the very heart of the lynching district. McGraw was an eye-witness to the lynching of Sam Hose, and to Miss Jewett he told the terrible story of what he saw.

"Mrs. P. this is no time for trifling; the justice is waiting," he continued.

WITH HIS BOOTS ON.

Wilbur Grissam Shot Down By Andrew Rowe.

Andrew Rowe, a saloon keeper at Kirkmansville, shot and fatally wounded Wilbur Grissam Monday afternoon. The details at and are meager and go to show that the difficulty was forced upon Rowe. He left Grissam and tried to avoid trouble, but the latter followed him some distance and the shooting resulted. Grissam and Rowe were playing cards when the first trouble arose.

Grissam was shot with a pistol. He lingered until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

He was town marshal of Kirkmansville, and a very quarrelsome man.

He is the same man who attempted to shoot Dr. Sargent, of this city, a year or two ago, but Dr. Sargent took his pistol away from him.

He was a son of the well known produce dealer, and was frequently in this city.

CARTER'S CASE.

One of the Criminals Protected By McKinley.

Captain Oberlin M. Carter was found guilty of stealing and aiding in stealing upward of $1,600,000 of the money of the United States. The court-martial which found him guilty was composed of eminent officers, three of them Carter's intimate friends. Carter still wears the uniform he has disgraced. He still draws his pay. And Mr. McKinley is still looking for some way by which he can please Carter's powerful backers, who are members of the second term syndicate, and at the same time fool the people. Not an excuse, not an explanation, is put forward for the delay in executing this sentence. Mr. McKinley is silent. His friends "decline to talk." His newspaper supporters ignore the case.—[Owensboro Messenger.]

MISS LEDFORD ENTERTAINS.

Pleasant Affair Near Pee Dee Largely Attended.

The young people enjoyed a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ledford, of Pee Dee, Ky., on last Thursday evening.

Their charming daughter Miss Nellie acted as hostess and the ease and grace with which she presided was that which always characterizes the charming southern lady.

The entertainment was given in honor of Misses Ada Chenaunt and Mabel Southall, two charming and vivacious young ladies. While the young people were engaging in pleasant conversation there came floating on the evening air the soft strains of the piano, violin and guitar.

As the evening wore on and each one became more and more conscious of the oppressively warm weather some one suggested that a cool drink would be enjoyed. Going in search of something refreshing, a table brilliantly lighted by Japanese lanterns was found and handsomely presided over by Miss Southall, who served the visitors to that most delightful of all drinks, trappé.

At a late hour the young people bade their hostess adieu and went to their respective homes, carrying many pleasant memories of the evening. GUEST.

OBITUARY.

Hattie West nee Miller, wife of Wallace West, of Beverly neighborhood, died Aug. 2, 1899.

Hattie was one of the best and most estimable ladies I ever knew. She was the most faithful wife, always thoughtful of the comforts and pleasures of her husband. Bright and cheerful around her home, notwithstanding her bad health. To visit her home was a pleasure to all who knew her. Her hospitality was beyond words of expression. She was kind and sympathetic to all her friends and neighbors, doing christian duties to suffering humanity wherever needed. She was a member of the Christian church, of which she had been a consistent member for fifteen years. She was strictly dutiful and submissive to her parents. Reared by a stepfather, no one would ever have known it to have been with her. She was so thoughtful of his comforts and obedient to his words that the writer feels like one of his children has gone to send a guardian Angel's spirit to comfort his lonely aching heart. To her sad bereaved husband, parents, brothers and sisters and friends I would say, "Grieve not for our loss is her eternal gain." She is now free from pain, waiting to meet us at the beautiful gate that stands ajar for all who live the true Christian life. My prayerful sympathy is extended to the bereaved family and especially to her husband and motherless baby. It is my earnest prayer that it may be the will of our heavenly father to spare the little babe to bless and comfort the heart of the lonely ones. Her Friend, E.

Walter Radford Kissed.

It is now a settled fact that the kissing bug is no respecter of persons. Neither do they care where they kiss, which is evidenced by the fact that one kissed W. A. Radford on the foot Friday night. As a result of the said kiss Mr. Radford's foot has been very sore, and the bug is supposed to have died instantly.—Pembroke Journal.

Horses in Trousers.

The rather amusing spectacle was presented yesterday of horses being driven through the streets in trousers made of coffee-sacks. The animals were clothed almost all over in the same material and were safely protected from the flies. They were drawing a poultry dealer's wagon from near of the country districts.

EASILY ANSWERED.

School Boy's Clever Evasion of a Hard Question.

Whenever there was to be an examination at school little Sammy generally had a sudden attack of illness. This time, however, his memory turned traitor, so he found himself an unwilling victim.

The questions were unusually hard that day, and Sammy felt that he was doomed. His only hope was that the teacher would not call him up but even this thought to vanish, and when at last he heard his name, Sammy arose with the air of a martyr.

"Now, Sammy, began the teacher. 'I want you to tell me in which battle Lord Nelson was killed.'"

Sammy was in despair, but he must prove himself equal to the emergency. "Did you say Lord Nelson?" he asked, cautiously.

"Yes,"

"Which battle?"

"Yes, in which battle was he killed?"

"Wal," said Sammy, with apparent surprise at such an easy question, "I specs it must er be'n his last."—London Spare Moments.

REDWINE SPEAKS.

Heard at the Court House Tuesday Night With Judge Hill.

Judge David B. Redwine and Hon. C. B. Hill made rousing speeches to an audience of 500 voters at the Court House Tuesday night. A number of ladies were present in the audience.

Judge Redwine was introduced by Judge C. H. Bush and spoke for an hour or more. A portion of his speech was devoted to answering the criticisms of the railroad papers on his rulings as chairman of the Democratic convention. He made an elaborate and convincing defense of the charges against him and plainly showed that most of them were lies. He used polite and courteous language in discussing the methods and motives of his defamers and the audience was strongly impressed with the truth of his statements. He eulogized the entire state ticket, appealed to Democrats to do their duty and predicted a glorious victory for the entire ticket.

Attorney George F. Campbell then introduced Hon. C. B. Hill, candidate for Secretary of State, who made a brief but telling speech along the same lines. Mr. Hill's speech was also well received, and the general opinion is that both speeches did much good and that many who have been wavering in their Democracy will now rally to the support of the ticket.
